OFFERTORY ANTHEM

All in the April Evening

The Choir

*All in the April evening, April airs are abroad, the sheep with their little lambs passed me by on the road,
The sheep with their little lambs passed me by on the road, all in the April evening I thought on the Lamb of God.*

The lambs were weary and crying with a weak human cry. I thought on the Lamb of God going meekly to die.

Up in the blue, blue mountains dewy pastures are sweet. Rest for the little bodies, rest for the little feet.

But for the lamb, the Lamb of God, up on the hilltop green, only a cross, a cross of shame, two stark crosses between.

All in the April evening, April airs were abroad, I saw the sheep with the lambs and thought on the Lamb of God.

Sir Hugh Stevenson Robertson (1874–1952)

Text, Katherine Tynan

RECEIVING THE BREAD AND CUP

Reflecting our conviction that God's grace is for all people, everyone is invited to the Lord's table. Please come forward as directed by the ushers to receive the sacrament. Holy Communion will be served by intinction; clergy will dip the bread into the cup and place in congregants' hands. Gluten-free communion wafers available upon request. Congregants are welcome to kneel at the chancel rail for prayer before returning to their seats.

PRAYER AFTER RECEIVING

God of all, we give you thanks and praise that when we were still far off you met us in your Son and brought us home. Dying and living, he declared your love, gave us grace, and opened the gates of glory. May we who share Christ's body, live his risen life; we who drink his cup, bring life to others; we whom the Spirit lights, give light to the world. Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us, so we and all your children shall be free, and the whole earth live to praise your name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

INVITATION TO CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

The message of the Hebrew prophets, Jesus, Paul, and the early church was always a message of welcome and inclusion for all. The image of God's kingdom is of something small and insignificant growing into something larger and of great significance. The oppressed, the alien, and the outcast were all welcomed, included, and cared for. In this sense, our faith is built upon the idea of gracious hospitality. Followers of Jesus are not about walls of exclusion but bridges of grace and acceptance. Ours is a faith of invitation, for all to come to know Jesus as the living Christ who overcomes all brokenness, sin, and even death, offering a way to make all things new. This invitation extends to you. If you desire to explore what this means for you, please speak to a member of the clergy after the service or sometime this week. We welcome the opportunity to visit with you.
