PSALTER

Psalm 22:1–2, 7–8, 14–21

Plainsong (Tone IVe)

The Gentlemen of the Choir

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? And are so far from my cry and from the words of my distress? O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; by night as well, but I find no rest. All who see me laugh me to scorn; they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying, "He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him; let him rescue him, if he delights in him." I am poured out like water; all my bones are out of joint; my heart within my breast is melting wax. My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd; my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; and you have laid me in the dust of the grave. Packs of dogs close me in, and gangs of evildoers circle around me; they pierce my hands and my feet; I can count all my bones. They stare and gloat over me; they divide my garments among them; they cast lots for my clothing. Be not far away, O Lord; you are my strength; hasten to help me. Save me from the sword, my life from the power of the dog. Save me from the lion's mouth, my wretched body from the horns of wild bulls. I will declare your name to my brethren; in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.

ANTHEM

That Virgin's Child

The Chamber Choir

*That Virgin's Child, most meek and mild, a lonely for my sake,
His Father's will for to fulfill, he came great pains to take.
And suffered death, as scripture saith, that we should saved be,
On Good Friday: wherefore I say, he mourned sore for me.*

*Now Christ Jesú of love most true, have mercy upon me.
I ask thee grace for my trespass that I have done to thee.
For thy sweet name, save me from shame and all adversity:
For Mary's sake, to thee me take, and mourn no more for me.*
